

COME MEET THE AUTHOR

KAREN BATSHAW

COMMEMORATING THE BRAVERY OF
THE ARCHBISHOP OF ATHENS
AND DECENCY OF ORDINARY PEOPLE,
HIDDEN IN PLAIN SIGHT
CHRONICLES THE SAVAGE NAZI
OCCUPATION OF GREECE THROUGH A BITTERSWEET LOVE STORY.

Date: Saturday, January 20, 2018

Time: 7:00pm

*Place: Annunciation Greek Orthodox Church,
Cotros Hall, 573 No. Highland, Memphis, TN 38122*

In 1941, the Germans invade Greece. Anna, a Jewish doctor living in Athens, pretends to be a Greek Orthodox Christian in an attempt to hide her identity from the Nazis. She falls in love with Alexander, an Orthodox Christian who knows her true identity and keeps her secret. As the Nazi occupation intensifies, Alexander and Anna must contend with increasing brutality and desperation in the streets of Athens.

For more information contact: Anastasia Terranova, 901-361-4382, ajterranova@bellsouth.net